StrategyDriven Enterprises Extends its Energy Advisory Services, Partners with NTE Solutions

StrategyDriven Enterprises, LLC and NTE Solutions partner to provide energy industry executives and managers with asset lifecycle management and regulatory compliance advisory services.

Atlanta, Georgia (April 22, 2013) – StrategyDriven Enterprises, LLC (www.StrategyDriven.com) and NTE Solutions (www.ntesolutions.com) have announced a partnership that will expand energy services to clients and prospects of both companies. The relationship combines StrategyDriven's leading experience in asset lifecycle management and regulatory services with NTE Solutions' capabilities in all aspects of power development, from engineering to commercialization.

"Utility leaders must find cost effective ways to replace aging assets, transfer knowledge to a new generation of workers, release currently unavailable capital, and optimize strategic operations and maintenance programs," explains Nathan Ives, StrategyDriven's Chief Executive Officer. "We are excited about the opportunity to combine StrategyDriven's experience with NTE Solutions' capabilities. This partnership will create a more complete set of offerings that efficiently serve diversified generation utility executives."

"StrategyDriven and NTE Solutions share a similar focus," asserts Seth Shortlidge, NTE Solutions' Chief Executive Officer. "We both aim to offer a variety of services that meet the growing needs of our clients and prospects."

The StrategyDriven/ NTE Solutions team provides energy industry leaders with actionable performance improvement and regulatory compliance support in the areas of:

- Strategic solutions
- Risk management and compliance
- Project development and management
- Asset management and operational programs improvement
- Performance monitoring and assessment
